Follow-up and guidance to selected project ideas (Improved CNs)

Following the decision of its evaluation committee, the OSS will forward the approved proposals directly to the GCF secretariat for evaluation.

The proposals that are not approved, OSS will provide comments and recommendations to the applicants as well as NDA/focal points for improvement and finalization before a second submission.

To join with the selected project ideas

Following the decision of the OSS Evaluation Committee and before submission of the selected proposals to the GCF, applicants will be invited to provide the due diligence of their projects as well as an environmental and social screening in accordance with the Environmental & Social policies of OSS and the GCF.

What is Due Diligence?

Due Diligence is a current “Know Your Customer KYC” process developed and applied by OSS to assess the eligibility and ability of potential fund applicants to properly manage the allocated resources. This process will be regularly updated according to the progress made in the activities and the challenges related to the management of the grants received by the different funds.

A form (control checklist) used by the OSS financial and administrative unit to conduct the customer knowledge process must be completed by the project executing entity. Once this form is completed, the OSS internal controller, in collaboration with the financial and administrative unit, prepares a report including the final decision and the recommendations that shall be validated by the OSS Executive Secretary.
